UNIVERSITY TIMBER LANDS MAY BE SOLD

Land Commission of Arizona Has Authority to Dispose of 500,000,000

Feet of Timber in State.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 5.—After having made a thorough inspection of the timber lands in the northern part of the state held for the university of Arizons, chairman Mulford Winsor, of the land commission, has returned to the tand commission, has returned to the capitol. He is making plans for the sale of the timber under a law passed by the legislature last spring. This law gives the commission authority to sell 500,000 500 feet of timber and turn the profits over to the university. No more than 15,000,000 feet can be sold to one person or concern Lumbermen say that this is far too low a maximum to get the best results. When the cutting of timber begins it will be under the specificabegins it will be under the specifica-tions of the United States forest ser-vice, to prevent deforestation.

PHOENIX MAY DAM VERD ETO GET WATER

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 5.—Engineers employed by the city are now investigating a project which, if carried out, will give Phoenix an ample supply of pure, clear and uncontaminated water. pure, clear and uncontaminated water.
This project includes a dam across the Verde river, just above its junction with the Salt, some 25 miles northeast of Phoenix. From there it will be conducted to a natural reservoir site be-hind Camelback mountain, about 12 miles from Phoenix and 150 feet above the city. A retaining wall less than 1800 feet long will create a reservoir holding 800,000,000 gallons of water. The wall itself will rise from bedrock to a height of not more than 50 feet above the surface.

How much it will cost to carry out the new preject has not been determined. It is expected that the engineers will make a report to the council at an early date.

PINAL SCHOOL TAX CUT FROM 19 CENTS TO FIVE Phoenix, Ariz, Sept. 5.—As a result of complaints that reached the state tax commission and an investigation made by commissioner P. J. Miller, Pinal county's school tax has been reduced from 19 cents to five cents on each $100 valuation. In making the levy the supervisors overlooked the fact that enough money remained out of the funds for last term to operate the schools till January 1, 1914

CLIFF WINTERS IS GIVEN HIS LIBERTY

Is Liberated After Open Verdict Is Ren-dered by Coroner's Jury Charging Him With Killing Hartsfield.

Bisbee, Ariz., Sept. 5.—At the end of the inquest held in the court of justice Thomas, coroner, Cliff Winters heard an open verdict rendered by the jury summoned to inquire into the death of Samuel Hartsfield, and a moment later heard assistant district attorney Murry make a motion which gave him his freedom.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was:
"We, the jurors, find that Sam Hartsfield came to his death by two gunshot wounds through his head with a 38 caliber Colt's in the hands of C. J. Winters. Signed, Frank Briggs' foreman; T. W. Davis, E. P. White, J. M. McDonald, J. F. Bennett and Lee Cochran."
Upon tender of verdict, assistant district attorney Murry announced that by reason of lack of sufficient evidence to onvict the state would not hold Winters at this time to preliminary examina-tion, but that this did not mean that he was exempt from answer to the friends and those in the court room. His wife came to him and shook hands with him. The family left the court room together and in the street below were surrounded by a crowd, which held them for ten minutes or more.
